On Wednesday 29th October 2008 Super Sumo's premises in Loughborough were completely destroyed by fire.

Paul Hannah, owner of Super Sumo, told Inflated News, 'it was rather a shock when I received the call late on Wednesday night and the building and contents were completely destroyed. The good news is that my computer was in for repair so all of our business records are intact.

We have already sourced a new premises and it is business as usual whilst we get organised. The landlines are being forwarded to my mobile and we will still be attending IAPPA in the USA in November'

Investigations as to the cause of the fire are on going according to a police spokesperson.
